2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #1 — November 19, 2010 — Milwaukee, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 60 — CALVIN 54

The UW-Whitewater women's basketball team kicked off the 2010-11 season with a 60-54 win over Calvin College in the Wisconsin Lutheran College Tournament in Milwaukee Friday night.

Whitewater trailed the entire first half. The Warhawks kept the game close, within four points, until a 13-13 tie with 10:50 left in the half. Calvin put together an 11-0 run including eight points from sophomore forward Carissa Verkaik to take the lead 24-13. The Knights used a three pointer by junior guard Courtney Kurncz to extend the lead to 15, the largest of the game, 34-19, with 0:54 left in the half.

The Warhawks opened the second half on a 5-0 run to cut Calvin's lead to eight. UW-W posted another 8-0 run starting at 16:21 included four points from sophomore forward Courtney Kumerow and brought the Warhawks to within one with 14:25 left to play. A Knight foul stopped the clock at 9:53 and Warhawk freshman guard Mary Merg drained both free throws to tie the score 43-43. Kumerow's layup off an offensive rebound at 6:11 gave Whitewater its first lead of the game 48-47. The teams traded the lead for the next 4:25. A three pointer from junior guard Emily Bestor put Whitewater up one, 55-54. The Warhawks never looked back stringing together five more in the last 57 seconds.

Whitewater had a major advantage from the free throw line, dropping in 23 out of 30 tries. Calvin shot 80% from the line but recorded just 15 attempts. The Warhawks shot 38% from the floor to Calvin's 33%

Senior forward Dana Thompson started the season with a double double, leading all scorers with 28 points, including a 10-14 performance from the line and 9-13 from the floor, grabbing 11 rebounds. Seven more Warhawks contributed to the scoring in the contest. Calvin's Verkaik also posted a double double in the game with 23 points and 13 rebounds.

UW-W, in the others receiving votes category in the D3hoops.com national poll, will face the winner of Heidelberg and Wisconsin Lutheran Saturday, November 20 at 3:00 pm in Milwaukee, WI to finish play in the Wisconsin Lutheran College Tournament.

VISITORS: UW-Whitewater 1-0

Game #2 — November 20, 2010 — Milwaukee, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 68 — WISCONSIN LUTHERAN 79

UW-Whitewater fell to Wisconsin Lutheran College 78-69 Saturday night in Milwaukee.

UW-W steadily built a lead in the first half, eventually reaching a ten point margin, twice, at 17 -7 at 11:47 and 19-9 at 10:59. WLC used a 16-4 streak to take a 25-23 with 5:12 left in the half, then after a three point play by UW-W's Melissa Olsen, used an 8-0 burst to lead 33-26 with 2:17 on the clock. The half ended with WLC in front 38-33.

The Warriors pushed the margin to ten, twice early in the second half, 47-37 at 17:58 and 52-42 at 16:03. It was the Warhawks' turn for a streak, outscoring WLC 14-4 to tie the game at 56-56 with 8:53 left in the game. UW-W was never to break through the tie, although the Warhawks trailed just 63-62 on a three point play by Kaitlyn Thill at 6:10, and still had it at 65-64 with 5:08 on the clock. The Warriors fashioned another run, 8-2, before the Warhawks were forced to foul to stop the clock. WLC made six free throws in the last twenty-nine seconds of the game.

Wisconsin Lutheran had their shooting strokes down. WLC shot 58% from the floor, 38% on threes, and went 24-33 (72%) from the line. Whitewater made 46% of its shots, 16% from beyond the arc, and (16-25) 64% from the line. The Warriors had to shoot that well to overcome the Whitewater defense that forced 26 turnovers and stole the ball 16 times. Thill, a freshman guard playing her second collegiate game, broke the school record with 13 steals, surpassing Sharon Romel's mark of ten set December 10, 1983.

Thill led UW-W with 19 points, hitting 6-7 from the line. Also in double figures was senior center Dana Thompson with 15 and tied for the game high with six rebounds. Olsen added eleven points.

Shavon Dillon had game highs with 23 points and four assists. Rachel Johnson added 22 points, hitting 6-8 from the floor and 9-11 from the line. She also tied Thompson for the rebound lead with six. Erika Laete added 12 points, and Krissy Day shared rebounding honors with six.

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #3 — November 23, 2010 — Bloomington, IL

UW-WHITEWATER 74 — ILLINOIS WESLEYAN 60

UW-Whitewater, in the "others receiving votes" category of the USA Today/ESPN Division III poll, upset Illinois Wesleyan University, tied for sixth in the poll, 74-60 Tuesday night in the Shirk Center in Bloomington, Illinois.

Freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill set the tone for the game with a steal at 19:11 and layup at 19:09 for the first basket of the game and UW-W was off and running. The Warhawks built a 16-5 lead at 13:58 on a Chantel Burg jumper, but the Titans came back to close to within 18-14 at 10:56. Burg ended a 9-0 run for the Warhawks with a layup at 7:42 to put UW-W's lead up to 25-14. Whitewater increased the margin to sixteen points three times late in the half before heading in to the locker room up 38-24.

Whitewater shot 57% from the floor, and limited IWU to 33%, in building the lead. The Warhawks also had a 24-11 rebound bulge.

UW-W couldn't get out of the locker room fast enough, outscoring the Titans 13-4, building the lead to 51-28 with 14:41 left in the game. Emily Bestor's three at 9:39 made it 58-31, the largest lead of the game. A 72-60 lead with 1:17 left was as close as IWU would get the rest of the way.

A coaching cliche' is "everyone contributed", and on this night that was actually the case. UW-W coach Keri Carollo used twelve players, eight of them scored. Bestor, Katie Burton, and Jamie Swanson scored eleven points each. Dana Thompson led both teams with six rebounds, and Thill topped the Warhawks with five steals. IWU's Nikki Preson was the game's leading scorer with 13 points, but she was held to 4-12 shotting from the floor, and just 3-10 from beyond the arc. Hope Schulte of the Titans led both teams with five assists and six steals, but she also struggled from the floor, going 2-14.

Whitewater wound up out-rebounding Illinois Wesleyan 48-29, and although the Warhawks' shooting cooled somewhat to 47% for the game, UW-W's defense kept the Titans at 36% for the game.

UW-W is 2-1. IWU, one of the final eight in the NCAA III tournament last year, is 1-2.

Game #4 — November 27, 2010 — Dubuque, IA

UW-WHITEWATER 74 — CLARKE 42

The Warhawk women's basketball team rolled past Clarke College 74-42 Saturday night in Dubuque, Iowa.

Whitewater took over the lead, 5-4, at 14:50 on a free throw by junior guard Jamie Swanson and didn't trail the rest of the way. The Warhawks compiled their largest lead of the first half at 6:06, 19-11. The Crusaders fought back to within one twice but the teams headed into the locker room with UW-W leading 29-26.

Clarke tied the score 29-29 to start the second half on a three pointer by freshman guard Jenna Kotas. The Warhawks answered with a 6-0 run and began a 14-0 run a minute later to go up 53-33 with 9:40 left in the game. Whitewater's defense held the Crusaders scoreless during a 13-0 run to give the Warhawks a 70-39 advantage late in the game to seal the win.

UW-W's defense held Clarke to just 16 points in the second half and the 42 total points is the fewest allowed by Whitewater since a 63-40 win over UW-Stout February 7, 2009. The margin of victory was the largest since UW-W's 92-61 win over UW-Eau Claire last season.

The Warhawks shot 38 percent (21-54) from the floor to the Crusaders 28 percent (12-42). Whitewater's biggest advantage in the game came from the charity stripe knocking down 82 percent (28-34) while Clarke shot just 55 percent from the line. The Warhawk defense came up with 13 steals and grabbed 27 rebounds (46 total rebounds). The Crusaders took the ball away six times and totaled 30 rebounds.

Swanson and junior guard Emily Bestor led Whitewater with 11 and 10 points respectively. Three other Warhawks contributed with eight points apiece including freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill who was a perfect 6-6 from the free throw line, freshman guard Katie Burton and junior forward Chantel Burg. Senior center Dana Thompson grabbed a game high eight rebounds. Burg and teammate sophomore forward Courtney Kumerow had six rebounds each.

Sophomore guard Morgan Sullivan led the Crusaders with eight points and two steals. Senior guard Shatisha Lewis had six rebounds.

The Warhawks, mentioned in 'others receiving votes' in the D3hoops.com poll, improve to 3-1 this season. Clarke falls to 2-7.

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #5 — December 1, 2010 — La Crosse, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 83 — UW-LA CROSSE 62

Big game hunters. For the second time in this early season the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater women's basketball team knocked off a nationally ranked team on the road. UW-W defeated UW-La Crosse , unbeaten and ranked seventeenth in the ESPN/USA Today Division III Poll, 83-62 in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opener for both teams at Mitchell Hall in La Crosse, Wisconsin Wednesday night. The Warhawks, in the "others receiving votes" category of the national poll, also upset then sixth ranked Illinois Wesleyan in Bloomington, Illinois last Tuesday.

La Crosse took its first lead of the game at 11-10 on a three pointer by Taylor Larson at the 15:07 mark. A layup by Cortney Kumerow (Bartlett, IL/South Elgin) at 12:17 put the Warhawks in front 14-13, a lead they did not give up for the rest of the half. UW-W built a fourteen point margin twice in the late going of the half, but the Eagles cut it back to single digits, 43-34, by the time the teams went to intermission.

Freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill (Belgium/Ozaukee) had six steals for UW-W in the first half, leading the defense that forced 15 turnovers by UW-L. Whitewater shot 56% from the floor for the first twenty minutes, and the Eagles were close at 48%.

La Crosse bolted out the door with a 5--0 burst to start the second half, cutting Whitewater's lead to 43-39 on a Melissa Lang three-pointer at 18:36. Whitewater responded with a 7-0 streak to bump it back up to 50-39 at 17:14. The Eagles clawed all the way back, taking a 54-53 lead on Danielle Frank's bucket in the paint with 11:35 left.

Just when UW-W could have folded like a cardboard box left out in the rain, the Warhawks bounced back with a 10-0 run --- with five players contributing points, to regain the lead 63-54, forcing La Crosse to call a timeout at 8:13. Nothing changed coming out of the break, with Chantel Burg (Hartford/Hartford Union) scoring on a layup and a basket from beyond the arc to make it 71-56 Whitewater with 5:37 remaining. The run would continue one more basket, giving UW-W a 19-3 streak after they had fallen behind earlier in the half. The final score was the largest margin in the game.

Only one stat showed any appreciable difference between the two teams ... Whitewater 13 turnovers, La Crosse 27.

Burg and Kumerow led UW-W in scoring with 17 points apiece, with Thill adding 12 and Mary Merg (Greendale/Greendale) 11. Thill's line also included six rebounds, seven steals, five assists -- and no turnovers from her point guard position. Burg chipped in with six boards.

The Eagles were led by Danielle Frank's 12 points and game high 14 rebounds. Lindsey Litrenta and Dana Churchill added 11 and 10 points, respectively.

UW-W is 4-1 overall, 1-0 in the WIAC. La Crosse is 6-1 and 0-1.

Game #6 — December 4, 2010 — Menomonie, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 83 — UW-STOUT 64

The Warhawk women's basketball, ranked twenty-third in the D3hoops.com Top 25 Poll, defeated UW-Stout 83-64 in Menomonie Saturday night.

With Stout leading 9-6 UW-Whitewater combined the inside play of senior center Dana Thompson (Belleville/Belleville) and a couple of steals into a 12-0 run to lead 18-9 at the 12:42 mark of the first half. Thompson accounted for six of those points on three baskets. Stout came back to within four at 9:42 and the score at 18-14, but UW-W used a pair of 6-0 runs over the next five minutes to build a 34-16 lead with 4:54 left in the half. Stout pulled closer by ending the half on their own 6-0 run, for a 38-27 Whitewater lead at intermission.

The Blue Devils scored the first basket of the second half to cut the lead to single digits, but a Mary Merg (Greendale/Greendale) layup seventeen seconds later put it back to double digits where it remained the rest of the game. Whitewater eventually built a 26-point lead, at the end of a 10-0 streak, for its largest lead of the game at 63-37 with 11:45 left in the game.

Whitewater shot 45% for the game, including 53% in the second half, and held Stout to 35% for the game. The Warhawk defense forced 27 turnovers, almost double the number (14) committed by UW-W. Whitewater shot well from the line, hitting 12-13 for 92%, but Stout actually out-scored the Warhawks at the stripe by hitting 18-24. Utilizing a system learned at the knee of Stout coach Mark Thomas, UW-W coach Keri Carollo used fifteen players in the game, and eleven of them broke into the scoring column. Whitewater's bench tallied 38 points, Stout's 16.

Thompson led UW-W with 14 points and six rebounds. Junior forward Chantel Burg (Hartford/Hartford Union) and sophomore forward Cortney Kumerow (Bartlett, IL/South Elgin) had ten points apiece, and junior guard Jamie Swanson (Fox Lake, IL/Grant Community) contributed game highs in assists, 4, and steals, 7. Freshman guard Sami Schoeder had the game high in points, 20, and chipped in with seven rebound for UW-S. The only other player in double digits for the Blue Devils was sophomore guard Kayla Windt, with 11. Sophomore forward Whitney Rawdon grabbed a game high eight boards for Stout.

The Warhawks remain unbeaten in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference 2-0 and improve to 5-1 overall. UW-Stout falls to 0-2 in the WIAC and 3-5 overall.

Game #8 — December 11, 2010 — Superior, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 87 — UW-SUPERIOR 76

Sometimes it's the little things. UW-Whitewater defeated UW-Superior 87-76 Saturday afternoon in Mortorelli Gym in Superior, Wisconsin.

The game was tied 9-9 at 16:36, when two threes by Emily Bestor keyed a 9-0 streak that put UW-W ahead to stay. Later in the first half the Yellowjackets managed to climb back within six, 34-28, but again the Warhawks streaked away, 11-0 to boost their lead to 45-28 with 5:27 left in the half. The halftime score, 57-35, was Whitewater's largest lead of the half.

For almost seven minutes at the start of the second half Whitewater maintained a lead of at least 20 points, three times up to 26 points. After one of those leads, 69-43 on another Bestor three at 14:38, Superior got it together -- in a big way. UW-S sprinted to a 15-0 scoring streak over the next four minutes, lopping points off the lead like leaves in the fall. When it was done, Whitewater's lead was down to 70-60 with a lot of time left, 9:24.

That seemed to be the point where equilibrium took over. Whitewater had a 15 point lead three times in the remaining minutes, but it was also eleven several times.

In the end it was those little things. Whitewater had an advantage in almost every category, but just by a small margin. Whitewater made seven threes, Superior five. Whitewater made 24 free throws, Superior 21. Whitewater had 17 turnovers, Superior 21. Whitewater blocked five shots, Superior 2. Whitewater had nine steals, Superior six. The one area that wasn't so small was rebounding, where it was 43-34 in favor of the Warhawks. All those little things added up to the eleven point win.

Bestor, a junior guard, scored 19 points, her career high. She went 5-6 from the field --- all of them three pointers. Senior center #Dana Thompson recorded a double double with 14 points and 14 rebounds. Junior guard Jamie Swanson was also in double figures with 11 points. Freshman point Kaitlyn Thill earn game honors with six assists, and her two steals move her just one steal from thirtieth place in the UW-W single season record book.

UW-S junior forward Hailey Hart led all scorers with 21 points, netting 10-15 from the line. Jjunior forward Bri Davis led both her team with 12 rebounds, while also scoring 20 points. Sophomore guard Connie Urmansky contributed 17 points.

Game #9 — December 14, 2010 — Whitewater, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 91 — DUBUQUE 68

The Warhawk women's basketball team, ranked eighteenth in the D3hoops.com top 25 poll, defeated the University of Dubuque 91-68 Tuesday night in Kachel Gym in Whitewater, WI.

The Spartans led by four with 10:58 left in the first half but three pointers from freshman guard Mary Merg and junior guard Jamie Swanson bolstered a 12-0 Whitewater run that gave UW-W a 26-18 lead with 8:19 left in the first half. UW-W wouldn't trail the rest of the way posting a 16-3 run stretching almost five minutes to take a 20 point lead, the largest of the half, with 1:51 remaining. The teams went into the locker rooms with Whitewater up 47-29. The Warhawks held Dubuque to 33% shooting from the field allowing just nine field goals in the first half.

Dubuque scored first to start the second half on a three pointer by junior guard Aimee Reyzer to force the smallest lead of the half, 15, with the score 47-32 and 19:44 remaining on the clock. The Warhawks gradually built their lead to 33 on a free throw by freshman forward Amy Mandrell to make the score 91-58. Whitewater coasted the rest of the way to a 91-68 win at the final buzzer.

UW-W posted advantages in multiple categories including steals (12-4), assists (25-11), rebounds (45-40) and free throws making 20-27 (74%) to Dubuque's 13-22 (59%).

Senior center Dana Thompson led Whitewater with 13 points and grabbed six rebounds. Junior guard Megan Theune added 12. Junior forward Chantel Burg and Merg joined Thompson and Theune in double figures scoring 11 points each. Burg added six rebounds. Melissa Olsen, a senior forward, led UW-W with seven rebounds in the game. Freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill recorded game highs with six assists and four steals.

Sophomore guard Mollie Whiting led all players with 18 points. Jessica Jentz contributed with 11 points in the game. Junior center Jena Darwin posted the game high rebounds with nine.

Game #10 — December 28, 2010 — Point Loma, CA

UW-WHITEWATER 70 — POINT LOMA 55

It isn't meant to downplay the serious nature of the recent severe weather in San Diego, but the UW-Whitewater women's basketball team stormed back from an early deficit to defeat Point Loma Nazarene University 70-55 Tuesday night in San Diego in the Surf n' Slam Tournament hosted by PLNU.

The Sea Lions scored the first points and held the lead early in the first half. Junior guard Brianna Colon scored seven of PLNU's first nine points, with the Sea Lions leading 9-3 at the 16:26 mark.

UW-W missed its first seven field goal attempts, with Mary Merg hitting the first shot at 14:44 to make it 14-5. Point Loma continued to build its lead, to 30-15 with 8:47 in the half.

And that's when the good folks of San Diego should have sensed the storm approaching. UW-W scored six points in ten seconds at the beginning of a 20-0 run to close out the half with a 35-30 lead. During the streak Whitewater forced five turnovers that led to eleven points and the Warhawk defense made the Sea Lions miss their final nine shots. Six Warhawks scored in the streak.

PLNU did not attempt a free throw in the first half. Whitewater did not shoot well from the line, but did make 7-13. UW-W came back to shoot 50% (14-28) from the field in the half, which means that after missing the first seven the Warhawks shot 75% the rest of the way in the first twenty minutes.

Whitewater didn't let up in the second half. The Sea Lions were still within five, 43-38, when another system (in meteorological terms) moved in. The Warhawks went on a 10-0 run that ended with Cortney Kumerow's jumper at 12:26. That streak was part of a larger 18-3 bulge that gave the Warhawks their largest lead of the game, 61-41 on an Emily Bestor three-pointer with 7:58 left in the game.

The closest Point Loma came the rest of the way was 64-52 with 4:45 remaining. Whitewater did not score in the last 3:21 of the game, and PLNU scored just three points in that span. Whitewater, which shot 47%, held the Sea Lions to 35% from the field. The Warhawks wound up with an advantage at the line, 12-21 to 3-5 for Point Loma, and UW-W had a 46-31 rebound margin.

Senior center Dana Thompson notched her fourth double double of the season, leading both teams with 24 points and 11 rebounds. She moved in to ninth place in the UW-W record book in career rebounds (534), passing Tracy Moate (1979-82, 532). Sophomore forward Cortney Kumerow was the only other Warhawk in double figures, with ten points. Kaitlyn Thill, UW-W's freshman point guard, led both teams with four steals, and Bestor tied for game honors with five assists.

The Sea Lions were led by junior guard Crissa Jackson's 13 points, five assists and three steals. Freshman guard Callie Rhoads scored 12, Colon ended up with 11, and junior forward Lindsey Hill added ten points and a team high seven rebounds.

VISITORS: UW-Whitewater 8-2

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #11 — December 29, 2010 — Point Loma, CA

UW-WHITEWATER 79 — BETHANY LUTHERAN 63

Different night, same script. UW-W shook off a shooting percentage in the early going that resembled a Wisconsin thermometer, smothered another opponent with a blitz and, for good measure, broke the school record for steals in a 79-63 win over Bethany Lutheran College Wednesday night at the Surf N' Slam Tournament in San Diego, California. The win sets up a matchup between two top twenty teams in the tourney title game Thursday.

UW-W, which missed its first seven shots in Tuesday's win over Point Loma Nazarene, went three better (worse), missing its first ten field goal attempts against Bethany Lutheran. Despite that, UW-W trailed just 8-3 because the Vikings started out 2-7 from the floor. Emily Bestor hit Whitewater's first basket at 14:55, just eleven seconds after the Warhawks' first score Tuesday night, and junior forward Megan Theune tied the game at 8-8 with a three pointer at 13:48. Theune followed up with a layup at 13:12 to give UW-W its first lead, 10-8. Whitewater managed a five point lead three times in the half, the last at 25-20. BLC followed with a 6-0 streak to regain the lead 26-25. Jamie Swanson's three pointer put UW-W back in front 30-29 at 2:37, and the teams went into the intermission knotted up 32-32.

Whitewater fouls put Bethany in the bonus for more than ten minutes of the first half, with the Vikings hitting 15-20. Nine Warhawks scored in the first half, while Bethany was led by senior guard Nicole Jones' 13 points and junior guard Anna Cepek's 11.

UW-W warmed up at halftime, blowing past the Vikings with a 25-5 start to the second half. The whirlwind included a 13-0 run, with freshman guard Mary Merg contributing seven points in the run. Whitewater led 57-37 with 11:31 left in the game. The lead never sank below fifteen points the rest of the way for the Warhawks.

The Warhawks broke the school record for steals with 29, topping the previous mark of 26 set November 23, 1993 against the University of Chicago. Junior forward Chantel Burg led the team with five steals, one of eleven Warhawks to record a theft in the game. Freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill moved into the top twenty in season steals (ten games into a season), picking up four to move to 57 this season, passing Wendy Beatty (1981-82) and Colleen Graham (1991-92) with 55. The steals played a large role in Bethany Lutheran 's 33 turnovers, the most since UW-W forced UW-Superior to turn the ball over 34 times February 20, 2010.

Whitewater used 17 players in the game, 13 of them broke into the scoring column. Senior center Dana Thompson led UW-W with 12 points, and Thill added 10. Burg also led both teams with 11 rebounds, and Bestor dished out a game high six assists.

Bethany Lutheran, 2-6, was led by Cepek's 17 points, taking game scoring honors. Jones contributed 15 points, a team high five assists, game high nine rebounds -- and eighteen turnovers. Junior center Jessica Englund chipped in with 14 points and tied Jones with nine boards.

Game #12 — December 30, 2010 — Point Loma, CA

UW-WHITEWATER 73 — GEORGE FOX 56

The showdown wasn't. UW-Whitewater, ranked seventeenth in the D3hoops.com national poll, defeated fourteenth ranked George Fox University 73-56 Thursday in the championship game of the Surf N' Slam Tournament hosted by Point Loma Nazarene University in San Diego, California.

Unlike their previous two games in the tourney, UW-W got off the beach fast, starting out 6-0. The Warhawks followed that up with a 9-0 run, keyed by two three pointers from junior forward Megan Theune, to lead 15-4 with 14:30 on the clock.

Leading 21-14 at 7:35, the Warhawks ballooned the margin with another burst, this time 13-3, to build their lead to 34-17 with 2:07 left in the half. The halftime margin of 38-19 was the largest of the first twenty minutes.

Whitewater made 11-14 free throws in the first half, George Fox just 3-7, and the Warhawks limited the Bruins to 30% field goal shooting in the half. Warhawk senior center Dana Thompson had 13 points in the first twenty minutes.

After Whitewater scored the first basket of the second half George Fox scored six straight to hint at a comeback. The Bruins were still within range at 48-36 with 10:14 left, but a 12-3 burst by UW-W took the margin to 60-39 and ended any thoughts of a GFU comeback.

UW-W had it on the line. The Warhawks made 25-35 free throws, while GFU hit just 50% and had fewer attempts, 10-20.

Thompson, the MVP of the tournament, took game scoring honors with 24 points. Theune, who hit 4-5 threes, wound up with 15. Junior guard Jamie Swanson took game honors with nine rebounds, and freshman point guard Kaitlyn Thill led the team with four assists and four steals. George Fox was led by junior wing Keisha Gordon's 15 points, with junior guard Arianna Mohsenian hitting 4-6 three pointers to contribute 12 points. Sophomore center Hannah Munger, who came in averaging 16.4 points and 10.7 rebounds, was held to seven points and four boards.

VISITORS: George Fox (OR) 8-3

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #13 — January 5, 2011 — Whitewater, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 91 — EDGEWOOD 63

UW-Whitewater, ranked fifteenth in the D3hoops.com national poll, defeated Edgewood College 91-63 for its sixth consecutive win Wednesday night in Kachel Gym of Williams Center in Whitewater, Wisconsin. The victory moves head coach Keri Carollo, in her ninth year, into second place in the UW-W books ahead of Julia Yeater (149 wins, 1990-2001).

Whitewater broke in front 6-0, but the Eagles had pulled within two, 19-17 on a three by freshman guard Denay Hering at 13:41. With the score 25-22, Whitewater rolled off an 11-0 run leading in to a 21-5 streak that saw the margin balloon to 46-27 at 3:36 left in the half. The Warhawks went into intermission with a 50-34 advantage.

The halftime score was inconsistent with the play of sophomore forward Alison Tobin and sophomore guard Danielle Dixon for Edgewood. Between them, Tobin and Dixon scored 26 points, made 10-11 field goals, went 3-3 from beyond the arc, and made all three of their free throw attempts. Whitewater countered with balance, led by senior center Dana Thompson's 11 points and five steals from freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill.

Whitewater stole the ball the first three times Edgewood had possession in the second half, Dixon missed her first shot, and Tobin didn't get a shot off in five minutes before subbing out as UW-W bled away any Edgewood halftime strategy with a 20-4 start of the second half. The Warhawks led 70-38 with less than five minutes gone, 15:07 showing on the clock.

The rest was a game of numbers. The 91 points tied Whitewater's season high, also accomplished in a win over Dubuque December 14. The 23 point winning margin also tied the largest winning margin of the year, equaling the score against Dubuque. Seventeen players saw action for UW-W, eleven scored. UW-W tied their season high with six blocked shots. Thompson led the team in scoring for the fifth straight game, scoring 20 while hitting 10-12 free throws. Junior guard Jamie Swanson added 11 points in 13 minutes, and junior forward Megan Theune added 11. Thill finished with a team season high seven assists, game high eight steals and was the third Warhawk with 11 points.

Dixon and Tobin finished with 21 and 19, respectively, for Edgewood. Although they cooled from their torrid first half, both shot well, with Dixon hitting 8-12 shots from the floor and Tobin 6-10, and they combined for a 7-7 night from the line. No one else for the Eagles had more than six points.

UW-WHITEWATER 72 — UW-RIVER FALLS 63

UW-Whitewater, ranked fifteenth and sixteenth in the two national polls, defeated UW-River Falls 72-63 in Kachel Gym of Williams Center Saturday night. The victory, Whitewater's seventh straight, raised the team's record to 12-2 overall and 4-1 in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. UW-RF, now 11-4 overall and 3-3 in league play, had a five game win streak snapped.

River Falls led 16-8 with 14:47 left in the first half when Whitewater used a 6-0 push to narrow the gap to 16-15 at 13:21. The Falcons came back with a 13-0 streak, holding UW-W without a point until senior center Dana Thompson hit a pair of free throws at 10:59 to end the drought. Whitewater scored the last six points of the half to narrow the UW-RF lead to 40-39 at halftime. Senior forward Megan Theune led UW-W with her best half of the season, 10 points, and junior guard Tiffany Gergorich tallied 19 for UW-RF, hitting 7-11 shots, including 3-4 threes and going 2-2 from the line.

Thompson's lay-in to start the second half gave UW-W the lead back for the first time since the early minutes, but it didn't last long. Whitewater and River Falls exchanged the lead nine times in the first ten minutes of the second half.

Freshman point guard Kaitlyn Thill made two free throws with 2:28 on the clock, and that was followed by a three point play from sophomore forward Cortney Kumerow to give the Warhawks their largest lead of the game, 66-60 at 1:43. Kumerow stepped to the line and made two throws for a 68-63 lead with 0:56 left, and freshman guard Katie Burton did the same at 0:44 to seal the deal.

Whitewater, which shot 44%, held the Falcons to 33% from the field. Theune tied her collegiate high with 15 points. Bunched up behind her were Thompson and Kumerow with 13, and Thill with 10. Gregorich finished as the game's high scorer with 31 for UW-River Falls.

VISITORS: UW-River Falls 11-4 (3-3 WIAC)

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #15 — January 12, 2011 — Whitewater, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 65 — UW-OSHKOSH 57

UW-Whitewater, ranked twelfth and thirteenth in the two National Division III polls, made an eight point halftime lead stand up in a 65-57 win over UW-Oshkosh Wednesday night in Kachel Gym of Williams Center in Whitewater, Wisconsin.

The Warhawks jumped ahead 8-0, holding the Titans scoreless for the first 2:48, but the Titans responded with a 9-0 run to take the lead at 13:32. After four lead changes over the next three minutes, UW-W came out in front 18-15 with 9:06 left, then upped the margin to 25-16 with a 7-1 streak. With the score standing at 25-21 Whitewater went 9-1 to take the largest lead of the half, 34-22 with 2:35 remaining. The Warhawks led 34-26 at halftime.

UW-W senior center Dana Thompson led both teams at the break, with 14 points and nine rebounds. The Warhawks out-rebounded Oshkosh 18-13, and UW-W turned the ball over just five times.

The first ten minutes of the second half belonged to UW-W. Whitewater continued to build on the lead in the second half, hiking the margin to 19, 54-35 with 9:49 showing on the clock. The final ten minutes of the second half belonged to Oshkosh. The Titans slowly chipped away, cutting the deficit to 59-50, but with just 2:59 on the clock.

The Warhawks made 17-20 from the free throw stripe to Oshkosh's 11-14. UW-W's defense blocked five shots (Oshkosh none) and held UW-O to 34% shooting from the field while Whitewater shot 40%.

Whitewater's Thompson led all players, notching a double-double with 28 points and 14 rebounds in the contest while adding three blocks. Junior forward Chantel Burg contributed 11 points. Freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill tallied four steals, bringing her season total to 76 which matches Kelsey Hendrickson's mark from the 2007-08 season for fourth place in the UW-W record book.

Sophomore guard Megan Wenig scored 16 points for the Titans. Senior guard Michelle Boeder was the only other player in double figures for UW-O, with 10. Shelby Churchill and Kelsey Myklebust had six rebounds each for UW-O, and Sarah Stecker contributed three steals.

The Warhawks improve to 13-2 this season including a 5-1 Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference record. Oshkosh falls to 8-7 overall and 3-3 in the WIAC.

VISITORS: UW-Oshkosh 8-7 (3-3 WIAC)

Game #16 — January 15, 2011 — Eau Claire, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 71 — UW-EAU CLAIRE 70

Chantel Burg's end to end dash and old school three point play made it a memorable night for UW-Whitewater and head coach Keri Carollo. Whitewater won its ninth straight game, defeating UW-Eau Claire 71-70 at Zorn Arena in Eau Claire, Wisconsin Saturday night. UW-W head coach Keri Carollo won't admit it, and may not even think of it, but for a coach who has directed her team to three consecutive NCAA III tournament appearances, won two of the last three Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles, and piled up 151 wins in the ninth year, the win was Carollo's first at Eau Claire.

After a 4-3 Eau Claire lead 1:29 into the game UW-W went on a 14-2 run to lead 17-6 at 14:29. Whitewater continued to build the lead, eventually reaching 34-14 with 7:08 left in the half. At that point Eau Claire responded with a 10-0 run, making it 34-24 at 5:35. That margin was equaled, but Eau Claire could not get into single digits again in the first half, with the half ending 42-30 Whitewater.

Whitewater shot 50% in the first half, Eau Claire 35%. The Blugolds went 2-3 from three point range, but Whitewater countered with 6-11 long distance shooting. UW-EC made up some of the difference at the line, making 12-15 while Whitewater was 6-7.

UW-W maintained that lead until less than one minute was on the clock, but the undoing began several minutes earlier. UW-EC sophomore forward Sarah Bingea made two free throws at 3:19 to kick start a 10-2 Blugold run that ended with a layup by senior center Hannah Mesick that gave Eau Claire its first lead since early in the first half, 67-66 with 0:48 left on the clock. The Blugolds inched up the lead to 69-66 on free throws, the first as a result of a play and the second when the Warhawks committed a foul before the inbound pass could be made. Junior forward Chantel Burg made two free throws with 0:18 left to narrow the gap to 69-68. UW-W fouled on the inbounds, but EC made the first and missed the second to make it 70-68 with 0:13 on the clock. Burg rebounded the missed free throw, drove the length of the court, made a layup and was fouled with :06 left. She completed the three point play to make it 71-70. Eau Claire got the ball to half court, then called time out to set up a play. An Eau Claire player drove the left baseline, but a Whitewater defender established position and took the charge. With 1.5 seconds on the clock Whitewater attempted to inbound the ball, but threw it out of bounds without anyone touching it, giving possession back to the Blugolds underneath their own basket. The inbounds pass resulted in a 15 foot shot from the left angle, but it bounced off the rim and UW-W, and Carollo, had the win.

After shooting 50% in the first half Whitewater shot 29% in the second twenty minutes. Eau Claire went the other way, improving from 35% to 44%. Both teams shot 75% from the line, but UW-EC was 27-36 and Whitewater went 15-20. Whitewater's defense forced 26 turnovers, including 13 steals. Whitewater had 17 turnovers.

Burg led UW-W with 15 points, and freshman guard Mary Merg had 12, her season high, and freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill added 10. Senior center Dana Thompson, Whitewater's leading scorer at 16.3 per game, fouled out with 5:16 left and 13 points. Junior Jamie Swanson tied for the game high with six rebounds. Thill was credited with two steals, which ties her for third place in the Warhawk record book with 78. She shares the third spot with Lisa Laufenberg (1991-92). Second place belongs to her sister, Trisha, who had 90 in 2006-2007.

Mesick and Nicole Christianson, a junior guard, scored 17 apiece for the Blugolds. Mesick and Ellen Plendl shared game rebounding honors with Swanson at six, and Christianson led both teams with five assists. Bingea scored 15 points, had 5 assists and grabbed five rebounds.

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #17 — January 19, 2011 — Platteville, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 69 — UW-PLATTEVILLE 54

If the pioneers (small "p") had stumbled like this the United States might be calling Missouri "the west". Trailing just 35-30 at halftime, the wheels came off the Pioneer wagon as UW-Whitewater outscored UW-Platteville 27-8 the first eight minutes of the second half in a 69-54 win at Williams Fieldhouse in Platteville, Wisconsin Wednesday night.

With the game tied 6-6 Whitewater scored seven straight to lead 13-6 on a Dana Thompson layup with 13:32 left in the first half. UW-W, which led for last eighteen-plus minutes of the half, built a seven point lead, twice, 17-10 and 19-12. The Pioneers came back to tie the game 25-25 with 2:23 on the clock, but Whitewater closed out the half with the final five points to lead 30-25 at intermission.

Platteville shot just 28% from the floor in the first twenty minutes, and the teams combined to shoot 1-10 from three point range. Thompson, a senior center, led both teams with 10 points. Three Pioneers scored six each in the first half.

Whitewater led 57-33 with 12:07 left in the game. Then UW-Platteville showed their true pioneer (small "p") toughness, cutting the Whitewater lead in half, to 12, 66-54 on a jumper by freshman forward Kim Wellnitz with 1:55 left, but that was the closest the game got.

Whitewater's defense limited UW-P to 34% shooting from the floor, while the Warhawks hit 49%. The Warhawks finally made a couple of three's, going 2-3 in the second half. Platteville ruled the boards, 38-26, and had fewer turnovers, 22-25, but UW-W outscored UW-P 42-18 in the paint and 25-17 in points off the bench.

Thompson led both teams with 24 points, connecting on 9-14 from the field. Junior forward Chantel Burg led UW-W with seven rebounds, junior guard Megan Theune led with three assists, and junior guard Jamie Swanson had a game high four steals. Junior center Ashley Callahan led UW-P with 13 points and nine rebounds, with sophomore forward Ashley Henry adding ten points. Sophomore guard Liz Lawinger dished out a game high eight assists.

Game #18 — January 26, 2011 — Stevens Point, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 47 — UW-STEVENS POINT 66

UW-Whitewater, ranked ninth, fell to seventh ranked UW-Stevens Point 66-47 Wednesday night in Berg Gymnasium in Stevens Point, Wisconsin.

The teams were tied five times in the first half, with Whitewater's last lead 6-5 at 15:28. The Pointers built up a six point lead, twice, 19-13 at 7:17 and 21-15 at 5:17. Whitewater was within 21-18 with 4:03 left in the half, but the Pointers closed out the half scoring the final eight points. UW-SP led 29-18 at the half.

Point shot 41% from the field, Whitewater 26%, and the Pointers forced 15 turnovers while committing eight. Senior center Dana Thompson led UW-W with six points, and junior center Ashley Averkamp scored 10 for the Pointers.

Stevens Point continued to build a lead out of the lockerroom, leading 33-18 on a Britta Petersen jumper at 18:46. Whitewater whittled the lead back to 33-26 with Chantel Burg's free throw at 13:33. Averkamp hit a pair of free throws at 11:41 to make the UW-SP lead 39-28 and the Pointers led by double figures the rest of the way.

Whitewater shot 42% in the second half, 33% for the game, but made 6-13 (46%) of their three point attempts. The Warhawks committed 27 turnovers. UW-SP shot 41%, just 1-12 from beyond the arc, and hit 15-19 free throws, giving them an eight point advantage at the line.

Thompson was the lone Warhawk to score in double figures, with 13, making 6-10 shots and she led Whitewater with eight rebounds. Averkamp led all scorers with 19 points, including 3-3 from the line. Petersen added 17 points on 8-13 shooting, and a game high 12 rebounds. UW- SP senior guard Andrea Flease was the game leader with six steals and five assists.

The Warhawks also lost to Stevens Point in Kachel Gym, 83-69 December 8, the last time UW-W lost. With the ten game win streak broken, UW-W is 15-3 overall and 7-2 in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. UW-SP upping its win streak to ten, is 17-2 and 10-0 in league play.

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #19 — January 29, 2011 — Whitewater, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 69 — UW-STOUT 53

UW-W senior center Dana Thompson joined the 1,000 point club in the Warhawks 69-53 win over UW-Stout Saturday night on Alumni Night in Kachel Gym of Williams Center. Dianne Jones, who directed the Warhawks to 229 wins in thirteen years, was honored at a halftime ceremony.

Thompson, senior from Belleville, scored the first basket of the game, a layup at 19:18, to reach 1,000 points. She is the eleventh player in UW-W women's basketball history to reach the mark, and just the fifth to combine 1,000 points and 500 rebounds. Tiffany Morton (2006-2009) was the latest with 1,215 points and 740 rebounds. The others, with their numbers, were Lindsey Buechner (2004-2008, 1,205, 665), DeAnne Lehman (1984-88, 1,050, 505) and Diane Morales (1975-79, 1038, 752).

Thompson's basket was part of a 12-2 game opening run by the Warhawks, who eventually built a 24-8 lead with 9:56 left in the half Stout cut the deficit to nine points, twice, but UW-W went into intermission leading 38-22.

Stout turned the ball over 19 times in the first half, and Whitewater was 8-12 from the line while UW-S was just 2-2. Thompson and sophomore forward Cortney Kumerow led all scorers with ten points each.

Stout inched back to within twelve, 60-48, with 5:33 left in the game, but that was as close as the Blue Devils would get as both teams scored 31 points in the final twenty minutes and the halftime margin stood up.

The Blue Devils wound up with 33 turnovers, and Whitewater's final margin at the free throw line was eight (14-21 to 6-8).

Thompson wound up with 19 points to lead both teams, hitting 8-11 from the floor. Kumerow was the only other Warhawk scoring in double figures with 12. Freshman point guard Kaitlyn Thill was the game leader with seven steals and five assists, and just one turnover in 29 minutes.

Game #20 — February 3, 2011 — Whitewater, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 66 — UW-LA CROSSE 73

UW-La Crosse used its superiority on the boards for 73-66 win over eleventh ranked UW-Whitewater Thursday night in Kachel Gym of Williams Center.

Whitewater opened 5-0 and La Crosse came back with nine straight to lead 9-5 at 16:42. The momentum shifted 180 degrees and UW-W used an 11-0 spurt to go in front 16-9 at 12:23, the Warhawks' largest lead of the half. Although UW-L did not retake the lead, they pulled even with UW-W four more times in the half, with the teams entering halftime tied 28-28.

UW-L had eleven offensive rebounds in the first half, with senior center Danielle Frank grabbing ten boards, eight of them on the offensive end. The Warhawks kept even by shooting 44% and limiting UW-L to 32% from the floor.

The second half was like a pair of cheap nylons in a blackberry patch, runs everywhere. The Warhawks went first, using an 11-2 burst out of the half to lead 39-30 on two Dana Thompson free throws with 17:34 left. The seesaw tilted back and La Crosse responded 7-0 to make it 39-37 on a Briana Radowicz three at 12:43. Back to Whitewater, and UW-W went 7-0 for a 46-37 lead at 9:28, again on a pair of Thompson free throws. Given the nature of this game, it meant it was La Crosse's turn to go off, and they outscored UW-W 10-2 over the next three minutes to narrow Whitewater's lead to 48-47 with 6:22 left. With the Warhawks in front 51-47, UW-L used another burst, this time 16-2, to build a ten point lead, 63-53 with 1:31 remaining on the clock. Eight of those sixteen points came from senior forward Dana Churchill. The Eagles' lead never dipped below seven points the rest of the way, with the last 14 UW-L points coming from the free throw line, hitting 14-14 as Whitewater tried to stop the clock for a comeback.

Whitewater shot 48% for the game and UW-L 39%, but the Eagles offset that with a 38-22 rebounding edge. La Crosse also went to the line 33 times and made 28 (85%), which gave them a 13 point advantage over the Warhawks who were 15-19 (80%).

Thompson led UW-W with 17 points, going 7-7 from the line. She also led the Warhawks with five steals. Junior forward Chantel Burg added 14 points and led Whitewater with eight rebounds. Senior guard Taylor Larson led all scorers with 20 points, 8-8 from the line and dished out five assists. Churchill contributed 19 points, 9-10 from the charity stripe, and Frank led both teams with 13 rebounds, ten on the offensive glass.

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #21 — February 5, 2011 — River Falls, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 69 — UW-RIVER FALLS 73

53-31. Although that was UW-River Falls' rebound margin and not the final score, it was a big set of numbers in the Falcons' 73-69 overtime win over UW-Whitewater.

Whitewater led 9-4 with 16:08 left in the opening half. With the score 13-12 at 11:50 the Warhawks went on a 9-1 run to make it 22-13 with 8:08 left. River Falls closed the half with an 8-2 run that closed Whitewater's lead to 33-29 at the half. Both teams scored 12 field goals in the half, the difference being that three of the Warhawks' were three pointers. UW-RF junior forward Maranda Dohrn had nine points and eight rebounds in the first twenty minutes.

River Falls caught the Warhawks at 35-35 with 17:52 left in the game. After a period of back and forth scoring, UW-RF forged a 56-51 lead with 6:47 left. The Warhawks nibbled away at the margin until junior forward Chantel Burg made the first of two free throws to tie the game at 63-63 with 0:46 remaining, where the half ended after each team missed opportunities to end the game in regulation.

The Warhawks and Falcons traded baskets on each of their first two possesions in the extra session for a 69-69 tie with 1:16 left. Junior guard Tiffany Gregorich (who scored 31 points for the Falcons in their 72-63 loss to Whitewater January 8) scored on a layup to put the Falcons in front 71-69 with 0:26 on the clock. The Warhawks turned the ball over on their next possesion, and Dohrn was fouled with six seconds left, missed both, but (here comes that number again) the Falcons grabbed the rebound and Alise Holst was immediately fouled. Holst made both free throws to end the scoring.

River Falls used its advantage on the boards for second chance points, scoring 14 themselves and limiting Whitewater to 6, and shooting 43% to Whitewater's 36%. The Warhawks kept the game close because they made four more three point shots (7-24) than UW-RF (1-8).

River Falls junior center Taylor House was the game's leading scorer with 19 points and she led both teams with five assists, but her numbers paled in comparison with teammate Dohrn, who scored 17 and pulled down 19 rebounds -- the most by a Warhawk opponent this year (in fact, five more than the previous high by Danielle Frank of UW-La Crosse December 1). Holst was also in double figures with 12 points. Theune and freshman guard Mary Merg scored 12 apiece for UW-W, with freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill adding ten and a team high four steals. The freshman guard led Whitewater with four assists.

Game #22 — February 9, 2011 — Whitewater, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 72 — UW-PLATTEVILLE 47

If UW-Whitewater coach Keri Carollo had thought to bottle it and bring it out of the lockerroom she would be on QVC tomorrow and Lifestyle of the Rich and Famous next season. Leading 33-27 at halftime, Whitewater limited UW-Platteville to eight points in the first thirteen minutes of the second half in a 72-47 win on All-American Night at Kachel Gym in Williams Center Wednesday night.

Ashley Callahan hit a jumper for the Pioneers to give them a 2-0 lead, the only lead Platteville would hold in the first half. With the score 17-7 at 11:04 Whitewater went on a 10-2 run, capped by two Courtney Kumerow driving layups, to lead 27-9 at 7:52. Platteville broke a 3:37 scoring drought with a basket at 6:45, the start of an 11-2 run for the Pioneers that closed the gap to 29-20 with Ashley Henry's jumper at 3:18. From the 27-9 point at 7:52, Platteville outscored the Warhawks 18-6 to end the half trailing 33-27.

Leading 41-32, UW-W went on an 11-0 run to up the margin to 52-32 with 12:06 on the clock. Freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill (Belgium/Ozaukee) capped the streak with a three. While UW-W was hot, Platteville went from 16:29 to 11:04, a span of 5:25 without scoring. The Warhawks kept rolling to a 66-35 lead, which means Whitewater out-scored Platteville 33-8 during that time frame. Platteville had another drought, for a total of 3:29, which ended with a basket at 6:55, and Don Meredith (RIP) could be heard in the hallways of Williams Center.

Freshman guard Mary Merg (Greendale/Greendale), for the first time this season, led the Warhawks in scoring with 15 points. Kumerow added ten, and senior center Dana Thompson (Belleville/Belleville) led both teams with 11 boards. Thill topped both teams with six assists and five steals. Platteville was led by Callahan's ten points and three blocked shots, and sophomore forward Ashley Henry chipped in with nine rebounds.

Whitewater honored fourteen women who earned all-America honors in the last calendar year during a halftime ceremony.

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #23 — February 12, 2011 — Whitewater, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 85 — UW-EAU CLAIRE 75

UW-Whitewater used balanced scoring to offset 31 points by UW-Eau Claire senior center Hannah Mesick to win 85-75 in the Kachel Gym in Williams Center in Whitewater, Wisconsin Saturday evening.

Eau Claire led 10-6 at 15:54, and Whitewater took the lead with an 8-0 run that included threes by freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill (Belgium/Ozaukee) and junior guard Emily Bestor (North Fond du Lac/Horace Mann). Whitewater led 14-10 with 14:30 in the half, and UW-W never gave that lead back. UW-W led 42-38 at the intermission.

Junior guard Jamie Swanson (Fox Lake, IL/Grant Community) scored 11 for UW-W in the half, going 4-4 with three of those from behind the arc. Senior center Hannah Mesick poured in 20 points on 8-11 shooting for the Blugolds.

Whitewater out-scored EC 15-6 in the first five minutes of the second half to lead 59-44 at 14:50. The Blugolds got within seven, 66-59 with 9:25 left, but that was as close as they would get.

UW-W's margin resulted from more three pointers, 9-17 for the Warhawks to 6-13 for EC, and free throws, where Whitewater made 20-26 to 17-22 for the Blugolds.

Swanson led Whitewater with 15 points, followed by freshman guard Mary Merg (Greendale/Greendale)'s 14, and 13 from senior center Dana Thompson (Belleville/Belleville). Thompson topped UW-W with eight rebounds. Junior forward Chantel Burg (Hartford/Hartford Union) had four steals, and Swanson dished out four assists. Mesick totaled 31 points to lead all scorers, and sophomore forward Sarah Bingea scored 17 and led both teams with nine rebounds. Mesick also contributed three steals. Junior center Ellen Plendl blocked five shots for UW-EC.

VISITORS: UW-Eau Claire 13-10 (7-7 WIAC)

Game #24 — February 16, 2011 — Oshkosh, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 65 — UW-OSHKOSH 58

In the waning minutes of a game that UW-Whitewater had to win, the senior came through. Center Dana Thompson (Belleville/Belleville) compiled a double double, scoring 25 points and pulling down a season high 14 rebounds in Whitewater's 65-58 win at UW-Oshkosh Wednesday night. Thompson accounted for six of those points in the last 1:52 of the game, stymieing a Titan comeback.

Whitewater's win keeps the Warhawks in third place, one game behind UW-La Crosse, which won at UW-River Falls Wednesday. UW-W, 19-5 overall, is 11-4 in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. UW-La Crosse is 12-3.

Five different players scored the first ten points for Oshkosh, but Whitewater led 11-10. The teams exchanged the lead seven times in the first nine minutes, with UW-W eventually building a 19-14 lead on a Thompson layup at 10:05. Thompson had ten points in the first ten minutes of the game. That basket triggered an 11-0 run for Whitewater that pumped the lead up to 26-14 with 6:16 left in the half. Oshkosh, which went 6:21 without scoring, finally broke the drought with a pair of free throws by sophomore guard Katie Kitzke at 5:52. UW-W managed two thirteen points margins in the first half, 37-24 and the intermission score of 39-26.

Whitewater made five three pointers in the first half, Oshkosh none. Whitewater turned the ball over five times, Oshkosh 11 times. Thompson had ten points and nine rebounds to lead both teams, while freshman center Becca Diedrich blocked three shots for the Titans.

Mary Merg (Greendale/Greendale)'s jumper at 18:47 in the second half put UW-W up 43-28. Oshkosh responded with a 6-0 run to bring their deficit to single digits. With 10:28 left in the game it became the Shelby Churchill Show. Churchill, a senior forward, scored the next ten points for the Titans over a six minute span, drawing UW-O within two, 54-52. Still holding a perilous lead, freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill (Belgium/Ozaukee) hit a three to put Whitewater up 57-52 at 4:16, and then both teams found points elusive with no further scoring until 2:03. Thompson hit two free throws at 1:52 to put Whitewater in front 59-53. Churchill responded with a three at 1:40 to make it 59-56. At 1:17 Thompson went to the line again, and hit two more free throws making the score 61-56. Oshkosh scored to make it a three point game, and with 0:45 left Thompson, again, made a pair of free throws for a 63-58 Warhawk lead. Merg hit two more charity tosses with 0:16 left to ice the game.

Both teams struggled from the field, Whitewater hitting 33% and Oshkosh 37%, but the Warhawks made five more threes than the Titans (6-1). The Titans held an edge at the line, hitting 19-21 while went 13-18.

Thompson's 14 rebounds equals the season high she had against UW-Superior December 11 and in the first game against Oshkosh January 12. Thill, who shared the game high with Merg, both with four steals, also chipped in with ten points. Junior forward Chantel Burg (Hartford/Hartford Union) also scored ten points for UW-W. Churchill, like Thompson, recorded a double double with 22 points and 12 rebounds. Diedrich scored ten points and blocked four shots.

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #25 — February 19, 2011 — Whitewater, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 87 — UW-SUPERIOR 64

UW-Whitewater, ranked twenty-second in Division III, defeated UW-Superior 87-64 Saturday afternoon in Kachel Gym of Williams Center in Whitewater, Wisconsin. UW-W, 12-4 in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference,

Today's win guarantees UW-Whitewater a Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Tournament a game at home. Due to the results of other games around the league, the Warhawks, who tied with UW-La Crosse for second place in league standings, received the number two seed through the tie break procedure and will have a first round bye. Whitewater will host a semifinal game Friday, February 25 scheduled for 7:00.

The Yellowjackets took an early 6-2 lead 16:41, but it was more than two minutes before either team scored again. Then they combined for eight points in 19 seconds leaving Superior in front 9-7 at 14:20. Whitewater used an 11-2 run to build a 39-21 lead with 4:48 in the half, and led 50-31 at the break.

Whitewater's defense limited UW-S to 33% shooting, and the Warhawks used a ten point margin at the line (13-17 to 3-5) for the halftime lead. UW-W freshman guard Mary Merg (Greendale/Greendale) led both team with ten points in the first twenty minutes.

Despite the recent warm spell, once the snowball left the top of the hill it continued rolling downhill and gathering momentum in the second half. Whitewater never let up, piling up twenty-plus point margins early in the second half and extending that to the thirty-something range in the last five minutes. Lest it appear that UW-W coach Keri Carollo was pouring it on, Carollo used 17 players in the game and 12 of them scored.

Warhawk senior center Dana Thompson (Belleville/Belleville) led both teams with 23 points and 12 rebounds. Thompson hit 10-13 field goals and 34- from the line. Unless someone in the WIAC had a Mickey Crowe-like game Saturday, Thompson, who came into the game as the leading scorer in the league, will become the first Warhawk to ever lead the conference in scoring. Junior guard Megan Theuen and Merg both contributed 12 points, with Theune hitting 4-6 from the field. Junior forward Hailey Hart topped the Yellowjackets with 16 points and 10 boards. Bri Davis, a junior center, added 14 points, and senior forward Kelsey Thingvold 12.

UW-Whitewater is 20-5 overall, the fourth consecutive year Keri Carollo has guided the team to a twenty win season, and 12-4 in the WIAC. UW-Superior finishes the 2010-2011 season 8-17, and 2-14 in conference action.

Game #26 — February 25, 2011 — Whitewater, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 71 — UW-LA CROSSE 59

In a game played at the frenetic pace of a prescription drug ad disclaimer, UW-Whitewater defeated UW-La Crosse 71-59 in a Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Tournament semifinal game at Kachel Gym in Williams Center in Whitewater, Wisconsin Friday night. UW-W, 21-5, will play UW-Stevens Point, 24-2, in Stevens Point Sunday at 2:00 for the tournament championship and the league's automatic berth in the NCAA III tournament.

La Crosse led 2-1, all of the points coming on free throws, until freshman guard Kaitlyn Thill (Belgium/Ozaukee) made the first basket of the game at 16:44 to give UW-W a 3-2 lead. UW-L scored the next seven points, and held the Warhawks scoreless until junior forward Chantel Burg (Hartford/Hartford Union) scored to make it 9-5 with 13:45 left in the first half. A Burg jumper tied the game 11-11 at 10:34, but the Eagles opened a 20-14 gap to equal their largest lead of the half. Whitewater turned the tables with a 7-0 spurt to lead 21-20 at 5:04, and the game teetered back and forth until La Crosse held a 30-27 lead with seconds to go. Burg went the length of the court, was fouled attempting a shot, and her two free throws cut the UW-L lead to 30-29 at halftime.

La Crosse shot 40%, Whitewater 32% from the floor in the half. Whitewater caused 14 Eagle turnovers, while committing 10 of its own. The only time either team got a respite from the whirlwind action was at the line, where Whitewater hit 7-8 and La Crosse 6-7.

Thill scored the first points of the second half on a driving layin to give UW-W a 31-30 lead. With the game tied 38-38, UW-W's pinball defense led an 8-0 run over a span of 80 seconds to put the Warhawks in front 46-38 with 14:29 left. It was more than three minutes before senior guard Taylor Larson hit a pair of free throws to break the drought for La Crosse, making it 46-40 at 11:20. Whitewater used a 9-1 run to spread margin to 57-45 with 6:34 left, but the Eagles scored the next six points to cut UW-W's lead to 57-51 at the 4:41 mark. The Whitewater defense held UW-L without a score from 3:11 to 1:58, when senior forward Dana Churchill made two free throws to make it 61-55 Whitewater. With the clock conspiring against the Eagles, UW-L was forced to rush three point shots (going 1-5 in the last two minutes) and foul Whitewater to stop the clock, but UW-W went 12-14 from the line in the final minutes to foil the strategy.

The pace of the game took its toll, as the defenses forced a combined 46 turnovers, split evenly. Neither team shot above 41% (Eagles 41%, Warhawks 35%). La Crosse made more threes, 7-23 to 2-11 for UW--W, but Whitewater made up the points at the line, making 25-31 to 14-21 for UW-L.

Whitewater junior forward Chantel Burg (Hartford/Hartford Union) led both teams with 18 points, and shared the team lead with nine rebounds. Senior center Dana Thompson (Belleville/Belleville) also grabbed nine boards, and scored 15 points. Warhawk head coach Keri Carollo used ten players at least thirteen minutes, and nine of them scored. Churchill led UW-L with 17 points, and senior guard Melissa Lang scored 10. Senior center Danielle Frank pulled down a game high 14 rebounds, blocked two shots and altered numerous others.

2010-11 UW-WHITEWATER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Game #27 February 27, 2011 Stevens Point, WI

UW-WHITEWATER 53 UW-STEVENS POINT 73

UW-Whitewater fell to UW-Stevens Point 73-53 in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Tournament championship game Sunday afternoon in Berg Gymnasium in Stevens Point, Wisconsin. The Pointers, 25-2 and the league's regular season champions, earn the WIAC's automatic berth in the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division III tournament. UW-W, 21-6 and runner-up in the regular season, will await word of a possible at-large berth in the NCAA III tourney, with the announcement of the field set for 2:00 Monday afternoon.

UW-W led 5-4 with 16:26 left in the first half, and it would turn out to be the last time the Warhawks held the upper hand. Early in the half UW-SP managed seven point margins, then eight, then 31-19 on a three-pointer by junior forward Ashley Averkamp for the Pointers' largest lead of the half. Point led 33-24 at intermission.

Whitewater shot just 28% in the half, including 0-7 from three point range. The Warhawks hung on by making 10-15 free throws, out-scoring UW-SP by five from the line. Averkamp was the only player to score in double figures at the break, with 11.

Trailing 35-24, UW-W closed the gap with a 7-0 run to make it 35-31 on a layup by senior center Dana Thompson (Belleville/Belleville) with 15:30 in the second half. The Pointers went off on an 11-2 streak to up their lead to 46-33 on a three-pointer by Averkamp at 12:04. A free throw by junior guard Jamie Swanson (Fox Lake, IL/Grant Community) pulled Whitewater back under a double digit deficit, 54-45 at 6:59. UW-SP went back to padding their cushion, eventually extending the lead to 73-51 with 1:13 left.

Whitewater never warmed up from the field, ending the game shooting 25%, and just 1-12 from beyond the arc. Point shot 41%, hitting 8-16 threes. UW-W went to the line more often, making 26-39. That total equaled their season high, also attempting 39 free throws against George Fox College December 30.

Thompson led UW-W with a double double, scoring 18 and pulling down 11 rebounds. Junior forward Chantel Burg (Hartford/Hartford Union) contributed ten rebounds. Averkamp topped all scorers with 23 points, also grabbing ten rebounds to share the team lead in that category with senior center Britta Petersen, who had a double double, adding ten points. Sophomore guard Sam Barber contributed 11 points for UW-SP.
